

Your Privacy

Kious & Co. (KCO) is committed to protecting your privacy and the confidentiality of your personal and financial information. The measures we take to keep your personal information private and secure are outlined below.

How we Protect Confidentiality: KCO uses procedural, physical and electronic system safeguards to store and secure information about you in compliance with federal standards. Our systems protect your information from unauthorized access, alteration, and destruction. Access is permitted only to those individuals within our organization who need the information to perform their job responsibilities.

When we enter into agreements with other companies to provide services to us or to make products and services available to you, we include a confidentiality clause. Under such an agreement, these companies may receive information about you, but they may only use it for the intended purpose – to benefit you.

Persons Covered by the Privacy Policy: The KCO Privacy Policy applies to anyone who is a current or former KCO client. We provide you with a copy of this policy when you open an account, and we send you annual notifications thereafter. If we change our policy regarding the sharing of information, we will notify you in advance and give you the opportunity to “opt out” of such disclosure.

How We Obtain Information About You: In the normal course of business, we collect, retain and use information about you to serve your financial needs and to administer your account. This non-public data may be collected from several sources including: application forms you file with us. You should keep us informed of any changes to your personal information.

Sharing Information: With Whom and Why: KCO does not sell your personal information to anyone, and the information we might share is severely restricted, such as to non-affiliated third parties who we use to process your transactions, e.g., the company that prints and mails your account statement. KCO employees use strict standards of care in handling personal, confidential customer information, and are reminded on a regular basis of their obligations in this regard.

Kious and Company

Member FINRA/SIPC